

Subject	Grade	Comment
Irish	56	Satisfactory
English	81	Very Satisfactory
Geography	75	Good worker
French	52	Should do better than this
Commerce	88	Good worker
Science	94	Josephine is a dedicated student
English	Higher Merit	Joh is an excellent student. He works to the best of his ability. He must continue to do this next year. He is capable of a better grade if he is focused with full attendance. Excellent result.
Home Economics	82	A good result so well done. Practical work is excellent

Mathematics	53	John has worked very well this year in maths. Well done and keep it up next year
French	62	This was a good result and I am more than satisfied that John has worked hard. Well done
Business Studies	Merit	Great result John. Well done. Always a pleasant and mannerly student who is a pleasure to teach
Geography	78	Big improvement in results from last summer. Has lots of ability and needs to continue working hard to put his ability to good use. Well done.
Science	Distinction	An excellent and hard-working student. A fantastic result. Work needed on calculating speed and function of the large intestine.
Irish	43	Very disappointing approach to paper; essay confused with being a poster and poorly answered poetry questions
English		Mary's awareness of genre in poetry and drama has deepened and she has grown in confidence when developing her oral communication skills. Her editing skills need to be developed in writing with an emphasis on restructuring paragraphs and a correct use of grammar. Her attitude and commitment to work is admirable.

Geography		John displayed good research skills to show the causes and implications of climate change and good ability to communicate the factors that contribute to climate change in Ireland. To improve this communication, his data could be clearer and more concise when managing information.
Art		Paul has shown an ability to analyse colour, shape and space in a variety of artwork and needs to work on how he can apply this to his own drawings to critique the world around him. He is a persistent student who shows great enthusiasm for this subject and a willingness to explore options and alternatives.
Home Economics		Mark has a good knowledge of the nutritional requirements of each stage of the lifecycle. He has displayed good culinary skills in his food preparation and needs to examine in more depth the effect that foods have on the digestive system. He is a very organised student and works well in groups and individually.
SPHE Short Course		Siobhan has shown her ability to analyse different forms of communication to explore the impact advertising and social media has on her wellbeing. She participated in rich discussions in class and has developed her listening skills. She has displayed a good indication of being connected and aware of her learning in this area.
