

Blended Learning Webinar Support Material Business Studies Subject Department Activity

Building upon the discussion in your Business Studies Subject Department, the following considerations may be helpful for planning student-centered learning experiences while students are engaging with learning from home.

Key Question	Subject Department Response / Decision
1. What specific adjustments will need to be considered to facilitate students who are engaging from home?
2. Have we considered a blend of asynchronous and synchronous to provide for meaningful and stimulating learning experiences?
3. How will we ensure that our online learning environment is accessible to all, including those with additional educational needs?
4. Have we provided for social interaction and collaboration between students to support their wellbeing and engagement ?
5. What are the digital technologies that might support our practice in particular regarding collaboration, discussion, questioning and feedback?
