

Communication with those at Home Reflection

After the video, consider the following questions.

How will you communicate with those at home?

How can you all work together to maintain positive relationships?

Have you agreed on expectation in student-centred learning scenarios?

Is training and support required to be able to support parents with home learning?

What will happen if parents opt out of home learning?