

Positive Experiences from lockdown Reflection

After the video, reflect on some of the positive results or experiences provided for your students, their families, yourselves and the school.

For example, recognition of age and stage, appreciation of the types of supports required, more collaboration between SET and class/subject teachers, highlighting what home and school life is really like,